Marc Bachraty is a long-time student of Shihan Christian Tissier (7. dan), often travelling with him as uke (see Bercy videos on YouTube). He is devoted full time to Aikido: teaching Tissier's classes in Vincennes when Tissier is out travelling or travelling, running his own dojo in Clamart, as well as holding numerous seminars throughout France and Europe. Demanding but attentive, generous and giving, he has developed an aikido that is rigorous, dynamic, fluid and aesthetic. Bachraty will also be teaching the Fjords'n'Aikido 4-day seminar in Stavanger, 25-28 August 2011
